Getting Organized for Business

"The failure to adopt and follow formal, fair, and coherent procedures erodes public confidence in planning."
– David J. Allor, from "The Commission Will Come to Order."

Getting -- and staying -- organized is essential for the proper conduct of the public's business. This collection of articles from the Planning Commissioners Journal will provide you with helpful tips for keeping your commission meetings running smoothly. A great resource for planning commissioners and governing body officials, with articles written in an easy-to-read, jargon-free style.
